

40 Years and Growing

Since 1971, Christian World Missions has been committed to “going into all the world to produce fruit that remains.” In the United States, our primary mission is to assist individuals and local churches in growth in discipleship and renewal. Across the world, we work with indigenous church leaders to win the lost to Christ, establish new churches, and minister to the daily needs of individuals.

Plan to attend a ministry event in your area — or join us on a mission to another part of the world.

Going across the street and around the world...making disciples

In 1971, after 19 years as a local pastor, Cecil Williamson answered God's call to international evangelism, establishing the Cecil Williamson Ministry in Evangelism. His daughter, Lee Ann, worked with him in the early 1980's before establishing an independent ministry, Grace & Gladness, in 1986. Both Cecil and Lee Ann are powerful preachers and teachers of the Word, but are visionaries with the gift of faith. They have ministered in more than 1500 churches in the U.S., and facilitated the establishment of more than 1000 churches around the world. Their paths in ministry paralleled on another for many years until, in 2009, Lee Ann returned to move into leadership of CWM as he retired.
