Help Make 2017 A Year of Hope!

Hope is our theme for this year, and we need your help! This month, we are sending letters to 360 families who have given to CWM at least once in the past few years, and some of them gave regularly for a while. We've invited them to join us again, so would you pray that God will touch hearts and open pocketbooks?

We want you to know that we pray for you! We not only pray that you will give generously, but we pray for you personally, your family and church, your schooling and job, and even the other ministries that you might support. Right after the movie "The War Room" came out, we cleaned out a storage closet and made it our War Room. See all those post-it notes, photos, and print-outs? That's you! We print requests for prayer from Facebook and e-mails, write down notes from phone calls and letters. We want you to let us know when you need prayer!

The work of God's Kingdom is accomplished in prayer! Sickness is healed, the lost are saved, the oppressed are delivered, and hope is restored! Our partners around the world have several gatherings just for prayer each week, and in some places, a full night of prayer monthly, if not weekly! They regularly see God's miracle working power, and many people are coming to Christ! We are learning from them – if we want to see revival in the United States, we must learn to pray!

...and, speaking of prayer... This is Ty with his tutor, Sherri. Ty faces just about every challenge you can think of: his home life is shaky, he has severe learning disabilities, he is bullied at school, he is quite small for his age, and there is not a good male role model in his life. Bathe Ty with your prayers. Ask God to powerfully reveal His love to Ty, to restore hope in his heart and for his future, and to work in his family so that any small gains that are made are not lost in that very difficult home environment. We love Ty.

I intended to print a photo of Maggie last month, so here she is making cookies with our kids to share with the Wesley Foundation at MSU. Maggie works with Brittany directing our youth program and they really need your prayers! Both are attending MSU and working with us fulltime. They love our kids immensely and often weep for the challenges they face. Pray for God's continued anointing in their lives.
