Dear Melanie,

Beep! Beep! Look out! Here they come! Isn't this just the cutest thing? At Gospel Friends Living Hope campus in India, school children are learning the rules of the road – which side to drive on, when to stop and when to go.

Everyone needs to know the way! I just loved what this said about the very practical way ministry is offered by all of our partners around the world.

I also loved the reminder that there really is a right way to go. Not many folks really believe that anymore. Most people think that any ol' way will do – you pick your road and I'll pick mine and everyone will make their own way.

Lewis Carroll wrote that Alice in Wonderland came to a crossroads one day. Seeing a Cheshire Cat in a tree nearby, she asked him which way she should go. "That depends a good deal on where you want to get to," said the Cat. "I don't much care where –" said Alice. "Then it doesn't matter which way you go," said the Cat.

Many people don't know there is anywhere to go or that there is a right way to get there. Thanks be to God, through Jesus Christ our Lord, anyone who will come can find their way to Him for all eternity.

This need should burden our hearts and fire our passions every single day, the very thought that some will die without knowing the Way and finding Home.

Do you have a burden for the lost? Are you actively building relationships with those who don't know Jesus? Or have you become complacent and comfortable in your Christian Circle, hunkering down to hide from the ugliness of the world, to protect yourself from the chaos and conflict?
